

Beth Peterkin

Beth has been working with not-for-profits and small businesses in Lanark County and throughout Ontario for over 20 years. She is known for her grant-writing skills and also works as a business consultant in the areas of governance, policy development and special event planning. Beth has a degree in Economics and particularly enjoys work in the tourism field as well as capacity building. She lives in Perth and is currently working part-time as the Executive Director of the Lanark County Community Justice Program. When not working (or writing grants), Beth spends her time in outdoor recreation and travelling.

Welcome Beth.
