

Catherine Deplaedt

Catherine Deplaedt and her husband co-own the Canadian Tire Stores in Brockville and Prescott; she is the chapter chair of both the Brockville and Prescott Canadian Tire Jumpstart Chapters.

Catherine and her husband have been in Brockville for the past 5 years, prior to that they built and owned the Canadian Tire store in Olds Alberta just north of Calgary and established a new Canadian tire Jumpstart chapter in that community.

Catherine is very involved in her community and currently holds the position of Chair for Making Play Possible, Vice Chair of the Brockville and area YMCA Board, is a director with the Brockville and Area Food Bank and is a Rotarian with the Rotary Club of Brockville. She has two young boys Luke who is 4 and Alex who is 3. She is very passionate about children and youth having the opportunity to be able to access recreation regardless of barriers that may exist.

